

The Chicago alumni of Poland in the Rockies and the
Chopin Theatre present

Wanda Koscia's

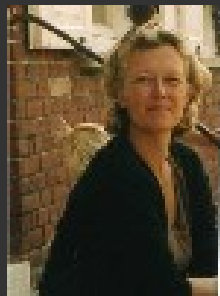

Battle for Warsaw '44

“

...This is the most determined battle of any that we've encountered since the start of the war. It compares with the street fighting in Stalingrad... We will finish them in six or seven weeks. Then we will destroy Warsaw -- the capital, the heart, the flower of the intelligentsia...of the Polish nation..."

*Heinrich Himmler
Jagerhohe, Sept. 21, 1944*

”

Wanda Koscia was a member of the award-winning BBC flagship history program Timewatch for several years, and has also made films for Discovery and the UK Channel Four program. Her credits include The Struggles for Poland, The Other Europe, The Hand of Stalin, The Walls Came Tumbling Down, Death of Yugoslavia, Tourists of the Revolution, and the drama-documentary series Dunkirk.

Wednesday
Oct. 22, 2008
7:00 P.M.

FREE admission

London-based director Wanda Koscia will be on hand to discuss her film and join us for a cocktail reception after the screening.

A large, stylized red ribbon graphic that starts as a thin vertical line on the right side, loops around, and then extends horizontally across the bottom of the page. The ribbon has a slight wavy texture.

The Chopin Theatre
1543 W Division St
Chicago, IL 60642